

Priorities of Co-Parenting Class:

- * Focus on the children and what they are experiencing.
- * Co-parenting skill building

Parents comments on the class:

- "The class was helpful in teaching me to put my thoughts into words, then talking to my kids."
- "I found the recommendation to not speak through your children made me more aware of how easily this can happen, even though it may be unintended."
- "Now I think about the reaction my kids have toward the things I do."
- "I learned to treat the other parent as a business associate."

Co-Parenting Class: Supporting Children When Parenting Apart

Extension

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON

Extension

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON

About the Class:

The class will help unmarried or divorcing parents in understanding and responding to the needs of your children. Guidelines on cooperative parenting and keeping children "out of the middle" will be presented. Tools to help you have a successful co-parenting relationship will be provided.

Dates and Location:

The class is 3 hours total. Call the UW-Extension Office at 920-388- 7137 for the upcoming class schedule. The class is held virtually or in-person at the Kewaunee County Administration Center, 810 Lincoln St., Kewaunee, WI.

Cost and Pre-Registration:

The cost of the class is $28 (cash, check, or credit cards are accepted. Payment must be received with the registration form before the class.

Attendance:

The Kewaunee County Circuit Court requires all divorcing parents and some unmarried parents to complete the class. It is in the best interest of your children that you use positive strategies to support them. Research shows that cooperative parenting learned through a class such as this provides a good environment for children.

Certificate of Completion:

Upon completion, a Certificate of Completion will be sent to the Kewaunee County Clerk of Court. A copy will be provided to the Family Court Commissioner and to you.
